

WORLD CONGRESS
Mental Health 2022
 LONDON

“Mental health:
 a global priority”

June 28th - July 1st, 2022

Central Hall Westminster
 Storey's Gate - London - SW1H 9NH

EACCME applied for

INVITED SPEAKER PARALLEL SYMPOSIUM/ROUND TABLE
Event Code: LEE22-00523 World Mental Health Congress London Mental Health a Global Priority, London, UK 28/06/2022-01/07/2022
Your details <small>(as you want them listed in the programme)</small>	Fernando Lolas, MD IDFAPA, Professor University of Chile Vicepresident Latin America WFMH
Date and time of your invited speaker parallel symposium session/round table discussion	29/06/2022 12:30 - 13:00 GMT
Duration	30 minutes
Proposed title <small>(please complete)</small>	Latin American Psychiatry: current perspectives and challenges
Overall Learning Objectives <small>(please complete)</small>	To provide an analysis and discussion framework for the developments in mental health and the contribution of psychiatry in LA
Overall Abstract <small>(max 500 words)</small>	Latin American Psychiatry will be examined from the technical, social, economic, and ethical perspectives attempting to reconstruct the history of recent developments in diagnosis, prevention, treatment and public policy, drawing attention to the interfaces between social determinants, legal provisions, and final outcome of implemented measures in clinical practice and public health
Details of other presenters/discussants <small>(please include all presenters)</small>	Ramón Florenzano, MD, Professor of Psychiatry, University of Chile Juan Maass, MD, Director, Psychiatric Institute Horwitz, Chile
Key issues each presenter/discussant will cover <small>(max 100 words for each presenter/discussant)</small>	Brief history of psychiatric practices and legislation. The role of psychiatric facilities and the impact of community mental health services. Ethical commitment of professionals and institutions. The integration of German phenomenological psychopathology and the insights of psychodynamic tradition in Chile will be highlighted by Prof. Florenzano with the example of the Psychiatric Clinic of the University of Chile based on the contributions of Prof. A. Roa and I. Matte Blanco
Key references or resources <small>(maximum five)</small>	Lolas, F. Psychiatry and human rights in Latin America: Ethical dilemmas and the future. International Review of Psychiatry 22(4): 325-329, 2010. Maass, J., Mella, C., Risco, L. Current challenges and future perspectives on the role of governments in psychiatric/mental health systems of Latin America. International Review of Psychiatry 22:394-400, 2010. Florenzano, R. History of psychiatry and Latin American perspectives. Textbook of Psychiatry (Spanish) , Mediterráneo, Santiago de Chile, 2022