

EACCME UNITED KINGDOM EVENT REQUIREMENT:

Name	Julie Millard CMHN
Title	Consultant and Educator in Mental Health
Place of Work	JM Consultancy, Sydney Australia
Statement/bio informing EACCME of your experience of delivering educational material	Julie Millard is a Credentialed Mental Health Nurse, a national recognition through the Australian College of Mental Health Nurses, an Educator, and a Consultant in Mental Health in Australia. She is a Board Director and Regional Vice President for Oceania for the World Federation for Mental Health (WFMH). Julie is an active member of several state and national community organisations, committees, and mental health advisory panels. Julie designs and delivers training packages on mental health/illness, recovery and rehabilitation and suicide awareness to consumers, carers and families, community managed organisations, government departments and community groups. Codesign and cofacilitation of advocacy, wellbeing and mental health workshops occurs with people with lived experience for a Western Sydney Recovery College. Previous work has included the development and facilitation of training for health care professionals at the New South Wales Institute of Psychiatry. Julie is a Member of the WFMH’s Sections on Trauma, Women’s Mental Health, and the Human Rights Section which has developed the Declaration on Mental Wellbeing and Human Rights of Refugees and Children; the COVID 19 - Greater Protection Needed in Psychiatric Hospitals paper; and the WFMH Declaration on the Mental Health Crisis in Venezuela. Julie is the Chair and previous presenter of the Women’s Mental Health Webinar Working Group for WFMH producing 3-4 webinars each year. Julie worked as a Clinical Facilitator in Mental Health for the University of Western Sydney, participated in the development of the Certificate IV in Mental Health, and was guest lecturer for undergraduate students at Sydney University. Suicide awareness, impact of trauma and mental ill health has been the focus for many conference presentations and various articles accepted for publication. Julie’s proficiency as an educator has resulted in active participation on the Professional Development and Education Mental Health Nursing Reference Group (NSW Nurses Association), Aggression in the Workplace Education Development Committee, and Chair of the Sexual Health Education Training Group for an Area Health Service. Julie holds a Bachelor of Nursing and has undertaken continuous professional

WORLD CONGRESS
Mental Health 2022

“Mental health:
a global priority”

June 28th - July 1st, 2022

Central Hall Westminster
Storey's Gate - London - SW1H 9NH

EACCME applied for development to remain at the forefront of reforms in mental health both nationally and globally.

Signature:
Date:	6 March 2022